Tonight's Game

With their Central Intercollegiate conference seasons opened by this game tonight, both Fort Hays State and Southwestern want victory in the worst way. And neither is going to be satisfied with a tie like last year's contest between the two.

That tilt was as exciting as you'll ever find a scoreless game. Five times in the first three quarters Coach Ralph Huffman's Tigers threatened to break the point-making ice, but Southwestern was always equal to the occasion. Then in the final period the Builders suddenly came up with their own scoring threats, two of them which had the Tigers on the ropes and all but out. It was an aerial game for Southwestern and a ground game for the Tigers. Perhaps it will be that way tonight.

Each team, were it not for injuries, would be starting a letterman at every position but left end tonight. But Coach Huffman has replaced two lame starters with a pair of Plainville freshmen, and a third regular may not get to answer the first whistle. Left half Earl Minks has succumbed to a back injury and in his place will be flashy Gene Jaco. Right Guard Harland Dietz also has back trouble and Charles Stahl has been moved up. And left guard Don "Rocky" Rorabaugh has been listed as a very doubtful starter because of a knee bruise. Should he be out, Ray Emerson will step in.

Much of Southwestern's threat will be in the running of halfback Art Johnson. There's also Builder power in fullback Marlin Dvorak. Meanwhile Fort Hays State leaves the fancy stepping up to a trio of pony halfbacks—Jaco, Eldon Matal, and John Roth—and the bulldozing to fullback Marion Schmidt. Quarterbacks for both teams, Phil Rader and Kayo McGillivray, are a threat both on the ground and in the air.

As will probably always be the case this year, Huffman's Tigers are outweighed. Southwestern sports an 11-pound advantage in the line and a one-pound edge in the backfield.

Looking ahead, Fort Hays State hits the road next week for the first time in 1951, traveling to meet the Gorillas in another CIC show. And a week later the Tigers are back in Lewis Field stadium to meet an old conference rival, the St. Benedict's Ravens.

Tiger Coaches

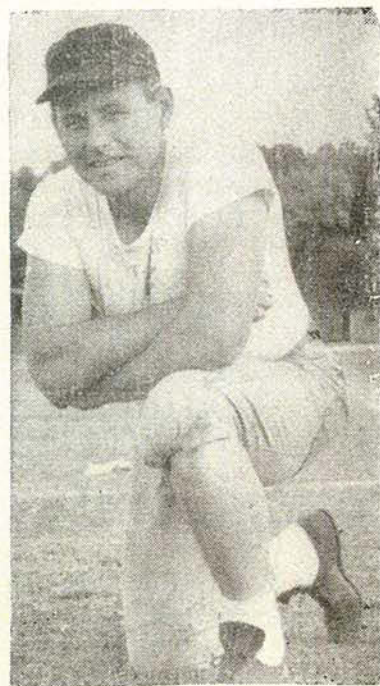

RALPH "Red" HUFFMAN
Head Football Coach

Red Huffman is in his sixth year as head football coach at Fort Hays State. But his career dates back to his impressive playing days that ended in 1936 when he was named all-conference and all-state center. Red has coached at Atwood, Dodge City Junior college, and at the University of Kansas.

PAUL "BUSCH" GROSS
Athletic Director

After piloting Tiger basketball teams for 16 years, Busch is now director of athletics at Fort Hays State. His main football chores consist of coaching the "B" team. Like Huffman and Francis, Gross is a Fort Hays State graduate.

ALEX FRANCIS
Backfield Coach

Francis' main job at Fort Hays State is coaching Tiger track teams, a position he took on in 1946. In his first season the Tigers annexed the first CIC track championship in FHS history. And they've never gone lower than second in the conference race under Francis. Alex was a FHS football star in the early 30's.

CADE SURAN
Assistant Coach

Cade helps Red early in the football season, but moves indoors about the middle of October to the big job of coaching the Fort Hays State basketball squad. Rumor is that Suran has a healthy crop of court talent lined up for the coming cage season.

WARREN SETTLES
Graduate Assistant

Warren Settles is back on the Fort Hays State campus after graduating in 1947. Big Warren was best known in his undergraduate days for his stellar basketball play and he ranked high as a track star. Warren is helping the Tiger coaching staff while studying for a master's degree.
